✓ "Aunt Tabitha", a poem by Oliver W. Holmes. ✓

Photographed and ✓ produced by Angela M. Gibson. ✓

One girl is telling her two chums about this aunt of her's. Words of poem appear on screen as girl talks. Poem is acted out. Shows the actions of the youth and maiden of today as compared with those of 20 and 40 years ago. It also shows Aunt Tabitha's aunt at the spinning wheel and her grand aunt in hoop skirt dancing an old fashioned dance.

When Aunt Tabitha was a girl she was modest and reserved. The girl of today is shown on the screen as one who likes to climb-~~tree~~ trees-- walk on a rolling barrell, etc.

In Aunt Tabitha's young days they sewed and darned.

Entire poem appears on screen at intervals.
